1. Corporate Member.

Corporate members have become the largest membership class and therefore an important membership class. Corporate members are likely to come from medium size commercial businesses based on The Bellarine and / or with an interest in The Bellarine.

Available to:

- Individuals and businesses with an interest in The Bellarine.

Membership Benefits:

- The right to submit a project to the Board for endorsement as an endorsed Strategic Project (ESP).
- Eligible for election to the Board
- Opportunity to join any Taskforce supporting an ESP
- One member representative per subscription with full voting rights
- The right to attend periodic Boardroom briefings
- Opportunity to nominate Community Members
- Opportunity to nominate a young leader to attend Round Table Dinners

2. Associate Member.

Associate members are generally individuals with small business located on The Bellarine but need not be. Associate members are buying access to information and networking opportunities, have the right to share their opinions, contribute to outcomes and be elected to the Board. Outside of the Board, they do not have voting rights.

Available to:

- Generally to individuals and businesses with an interest in The Bellarine. The Board will seek annual Expressions of Interest. Membership is restricted to one year terms of membership but may be extended

Membership benefits:

- Eligible for election to the Board
- Opportunity to join any Taskforce supporting an ESP
- Invitation to attend periodic Boardroom briefings
- Full voting rights.

3. Community Member.

Community members provide broad based representation and opinion on the Committee. Limited to 3 positions, the Board seeks annual Expressions of Interest. Membership is restricted to one year terms of membership but may be extended and the annual subscription is nil.

Available to:

- Not-for-profit organisations associated with The Bellarine. Expressions of interest will be sought.

Membership Benefits:

- Invitation to "Board Room" briefings.
- Opportunity to join a taskforce.
- Eligible for election to Board.
